

---

THE POLICY EXPERTS

ABOUT THE EDITOR AND AUTHORS

---

PAUL GUPPY | pguppy@washingtonpolicy.org
Vice President for Research

Paul specializes in state and local tax systems, health care reform and free-market economics. He is a member of the state's Citizen Commission for Performance Measurement of Tax Preferences, and served on the King County Citizens Election Oversight Committee and the Attorney General's Eminent Domain Task Force. Paul is a graduate of Seattle University and holds graduate degrees in political science from Claremont Graduate University and the London School of Economics.

MICHAEL ENNIS | mennis@washingtonpolicy.org
Director, WPC's Center for Transportation

Michael is the state's leading expert on free-market transportation policy. He is the author of WPC's Five Principles of Responsible Transportation Policy, appears regularly in media throughout the state and has been covered in The Wall Street Journal, CNN, Bloomberg News, and Investor's Business Daily. Before joining WPC, Michael worked for the Washington State Senate and House of Representatives and was formerly a staff assistant for U.S. Senator Slade Gorton. Michael served in the U.S. Army with the 2nd Ranger Battalion and is currently in his third term on the Enumclaw City Council. He earned his Bachelor's degree from the University of Washington and his Master's of Public Administration degree from the UW's Daniel J. Evans School of Public Affairs.

LIV FINNE | lfinne@washingtonpolicy.org
Director, WPC's Center for Education

Liv is the author of WPC's Education Reform Plan: Eight Practical Ways to Reverse the Decline of Public Schools, Learning Online: An Assessment of Online Public Education Programs, An Option for Learning: An Assessment of Student Achievement in Charter Public Schools, An Overview of Public School Funding in Washington, and Early Learning Proposals in Washington State. Liv serves on the American Legislative Exchange Council's Education Task Force, holds a law degree from Boston University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wellesley College.

JASON MERCIER | jmercier@washingtonpolicy.org
Director, WPC's Center for Government Reform

Jason serves on the Executive Committee of the American Legislative Exchange Council's Tax and Fiscal Policy Task Force and is the private sector chairman of ALEC's Fiscal Federalism Working Group. He is a contributing editor of the Heartland Institute's Budget & Tax News, a columnist for NW Daily Marker, a contributing expert at State Budget Solutions, serves on the board of the Washington Coalition for Open Government, and was an advisor to the 2002 Washington State Tax Structure Committee. In June 2010, Governor Gregoire appointed Jason as WPC's representative on her Committee on Transforming Washington's Budget, where WPC's ideas and solutions helped state lawmakers close budget deficits without raising taxes. Jason holds a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Washington State University.

TODD MYERS | tmyers@washingtonpolicy.org
Director, WPC's Center for the Environment

Todd is one of the nation's leading experts on free-market environmental policy and is the author of Eco-Fads: How the Rise of Trendy Environmentalism is Harming the Environment, which has received accolades from Forbes, National Review, and more. Todd's in-depth research on the failure of the state's 2005 "green" building mandate continues to receive national attention. He currently serves on the American Legislative Exchange Council's Energy, Environment and Agriculture Task Force. He formerly served on the Executive Team at the Washington State Department of Natural Resources. Todd holds a Master's degree from the University of Washington.

ROGER STARK, MD, FACS | rstark@washingtonpolicy.org
Health Care Policy Analyst

Dr. Stark is a retired physician and the author of The Patient-Centered Solution: Our Health Care Crisis, How It Happened, and How We Can Fix It. He graduated from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine and completed his general surgery residency in Seattle and his cardiothoracic residency at the University of Utah. He was one of the co-founders of the open heart surgery program at Overlake Hospital in Bellevue and has served on the hospital Governing Board. Dr. Stark has been actively involved in the hospital's Foundation, serving as Board Chair and Executive Director. He is a member of many professional organizations and is active in the Woodinville Rotary.

Former WPC policy analysts Carl Gipson and Brandon Houskeeper, as well as summer 2011 research intern Ben Shelton, also contributed to this edition of Policy Guide for Washington State.