WASHINGTON POLICY CENTER

Improving lives through market solutions

Q1 2023

QUARTERLY IMPACT REPORT

$100 million

amount a new tax on smart technology would have cost Washington residents over the next couple biennia

WA citizens will have

6,024,689

access to a tax transparency website helping them identify which of the taxing districts their charges come from

Our campaign alerting the public to increased prices on gas from the CO2 tax collected signatures and counting!

1,471

Provided data that reversed the Spokane City Council's decision to increase housing building fees up to

2,600%

6 million

Washington taxpayers protected from an unnecessary and unaccountable state bank

261,825

WA businesses experienced lower Employment Security payments

$28 million

saved for Washington households due to delay of Long-Term-Care tax*

*Estimate based on savings from Jan. 2022 to July 2023

2200
schools protected from punitive funding cuts if they refuse Critical Race Theory promotion in class of legislative proposals must be spelled out completely, giving citizens 5 days notice before public hearing or action

100%

