

ARTICLE 49
STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

49.1 Nothing in this Agreement permits or grants to any employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his or her official duties.

49.2 Employees will not be required to pass a picket line in the performance of their duties or to arrive at their work place, provided such picket line has been officially recognized by the Union. Employees will suffer no loss in pay as a result of their refusal to cross an officially recognized picket line.
